

Ginger Baker In Memoriam

But I hate the Stones and always have done. Mick Jagger is a musical moron. True, he is an economic genius. Most of 'em are fucking morons. Phil Seamen told me: 'These pop musicians wouldn't know a hatchet from a crotchet.' Paul McCartney boasts he can't read music! How can you call yourself a musician, then?

"John Lennon was the best musician in The Beatles by a country mile. He was a very talented guy. But George Martin was The Beatles. Without him they'd have been nowhere.
